MISCELLANEOUS READING. The Raleigh Standard, which has been the most ardent champion for the Union, strikes the flag and urges the most vigorous measures for independence and safety. In justice to others, who have concurred with the Standard, we copy the following from its last issue:

"We shall not discuss the past. We have no regrets to express and nothing to retract. We glory in our course as a Constitutional Union man. The Union men are, at least, "guiltless of their country's blood."-They have labored long and faithfully, under opprobrium and insults, to save the government and the Union, and at the same time their own native land. But revolution and war are now upon us. The time for "watching and waiting" has gone by-we must now UNITE and ACT. The Union cannot be maintained by force. Men cannot be whipped into freedom. Freemen cannot be compelled to send members of Congress to Washington. The proclamation is a gross usurpation. He has broken the Constitution .-He has assumed, and is now exercising, undelegated power. He has deceived, and would now ruin his country."

MISSOURI'S RESPONSE .- Gov. Jackson, of Missouri, has replied as follows to the requisition from Lincoln's Secretary of War: EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI, Jefferson City, April 17. Sir:-Your despatch of the 15th instant, making a call on Missouri for four regiments of men, for immediate service, has been received.

There can be, I apprehend, no doubt but that these men are intended to form a part of the President's army to make war upon the people of the seceded States. Your requisition, in my judgment, is illegal, unconstitutional and revolutionary, and in its object inhuman and diabolical, and cannot be complied with.

Not one man will the State of Missouri furnish to carry on such an unholy crusade. C. F. JACKSON, Governor of Missouri.
